Editorial committee was able to bring out all the IMA Focus magazines both the hard copies for all the office bearers of IMA Branches, SCM & SWC members and soft copies in all the official what's app groups as well on IMA KSB website to reach most of the IMA members in Karnataka. Now, from next month onwards the new IMA KSB team 2025-26 will be taking over and I wish all of them the best of the activities in the official year. It is my duty to express my deep gratitude to Dr Ravindra, Suguna Hospital who has encouraged us by sponsoring the monthly advertisement page for last 3 years and our advertisers for the advertising pages.

Everlasting motto of increasing the number IMA memberships in Karnataka "EACH ONE, BRING ONE" to be taken priority as the greater members number will have greater impact at all levels i.e. public level, institution, hospital, political, social to address the issues that might suddenly crop up at any time in future which are detrimental to our allopathy doctor profession. Always we chant now a days "NOT just the Unity among doctors needed, BUT also the Number of active IMA Members"

Secretary's Message

Dr. Suriraju V.

Dear Colleagues

Wish you happy Dasara & Deepavali

After working at IMA Yelahanka, I had the privilege of serving as Hon. Secretary at IMA KSB over the last year. I thank all for trusting me and giving opportunity to serve. I sincerely thank Dr. Srinivasa, Past President of IMA KSB, for recognising my work at IMA Yelahanka and proposing me for this role. This journey has been a true learning experience, and I was fortunate to work alongside many inspiring healthcare leaders. Most of them share the same passion — "What can I give?" Many quietly work behind the scenes, always guiding and supporting without any expectations.

I am especially thankful to Dr. V.V. Chiniwalar, whose patience and encouragement have consistently brought out the best in doctors. Under his leadership, several meaningful activities were carried out. I felt truly happy attending branch visits, the AMS Conference, Voice of Karnataka at IMA Mandya, SWC Raichur, swc sirsi and the Teachers' Day celebration at Chitradurga, where the awardees inspired us all. Every IMA branch offered fresh inspiration and new learning.

At the same time, we must acknowledge challenges. Lack of interest, procrastination, and hesitation to take IMA membership — especially among specialists and super-specialists — continue to slow our growth. Many doctors often ask, "Why IMA?" Being a super-specialist myself, I have personally realised the true importance of IMA — through its activities and the benefits it extends via KPPS, KSS, KHS, academic initiatives, HPV vaccination, tuberculosis campaigns, and even plans such as developing a medical equipment website. Importantly, IMA plays a key role in safeguarding our practice and hospitals. Much of the violence against hospitals and clinics has been prevented because of IMA's strong presence, creating a subconscious sense of caution and respect among the public.

Hospitals and clinics, however, continue to face hurdles such as fire license renewals. You will be surprised at how many attempts Dr. Chiniwalar and I made — even engaging with two cabinet ministers. Our healthcare leaders, supported by political leadership, especially Dr. Srinivas N.T., gave their maximum efforts. I sincerely thank Dr. Madusudhan Kariganur, Dr. Shankarnarayan, Dr. Veerabhadraiah, and Dr. Pavan patil for their tireless work on this issue. We continue to receive calls from hospitals seeking guidance, and while government procedures take time, we assure everyone that we remain committed to the best possible outcome.

This year, Doctors' Day at IMA KSB drew political attention to the struggles with fire NOC renewals. Every day brings new challenges, but with determination, solutions are always possible. The SWC Meeting and Coordinators' Meet on October 5th were successful milestones. Subcommittees kept doctors engaged through valuable webinars, and I take satisfaction in having helped arrange the Monthly President's Speech in a unique format with PowerPoint presentations. One of the most fulfilling moments was the 884th SWC Meeting, held on our own IMA land — a dream realised under the leadership of Dr. Honnegouda, Dr. Yoganand Reddy, and many others to whom we owe our gratitude.

Jai Hind!Jai Karnataka!*Long live IMA!

I also sincerely thank the entire IMA KSB supporting team — especially Aswathnarayan, Ravi, and Damodar — for their constant support throughout this journey.

On this festive occasion, I wish you all a very Happy Dassara. Let us continue to strengthen IMA and recognise the great service it is doing for doctors. I request everyone to register for Medicon 91 at Gangavathi. Let us celebrate this festival of doctors by participating in large numbers and showing our strength together

TRAVEL AND TOURISM VLOG

Discovering the Wonders of Gudavi Bird Sanctuary: A Cycling Adventure by - Dr. Dinesh Hegde

Introduction

Early morning cycling trips have always been a source of joy, but my recent ride to the Gudavi Bird Sanctuary was truly unforgettable. Nestled in a serene landscape, this sanctuary is a haven for bird enthusiasts and nature lovers. My 82-kilometer cycling journey, followed by a 3-kilometer walk through the sanctuary, revealed a world teeming with life, color, and harmony.

A Sanctuary Like No Other

As I entered the Gudavi Bird Sanctuary, I was greeted by the symphony of bird calls and the sight of thousands of birds congregating in one place. The sanctuary is home to a diverse range of species, including Cranes, Mud Cranes, Pelicans, Spoon-billed Pelicans, and Indian Cormorants. Each bird seemed to have its own unique role, from building intricate nests to nurturing their young ones.

A Symphony of Life

One of the most captivating aspects of the sanctuary was witnessing the various stages of bird life. Some birds were busy constructing nests using twigs and grasses, while others were incubating eggs or feeding their newly hatched chicks. The male birds, in particular, were seen diligently bringing food to their young, showcasing the beauty of parental care in the avian world.

Harmony in Diversity

What struck me most was the sense of harmony among the birds. Despite being in such large numbers, they coexisted peacefully, without any signs of aggression or conflict. This serene environment was a testament to the wonders of nature and the adaptability of these magnificent creatures.

A Must-Visit Destination

If you're a nature enthusiast, bird watcher, or simply someone looking to escape the hustle and bustle of city life, the Gudavi Bird Sanctuary is a must-visit destination. The experience is truly enriching, and the sight of these birds in their natural habitat is something to cherish.

Plan Your Visit

The sanctuary is home to these birds until October, after which they migrate to their next destination along with their offspring. So, plan your visit soon to witness this spectacle. The early morning hours are ideal for spotting the birds in action.

Conclusion

My cycling trip to the Gudavi Bird Sanctuary was more than just a physical activity; it was a journey into the heart of nature. The experience left me in awe of the beauty and complexity of the avian world. If you haven't visited this sanctuary yet, make sure to add it to your bucket list. The memories you create will be worth every kilometer cycled.

Dear Sir / Madam,

Dear Colleagues,

Today, I received a call from our IMA National President, Dr. Dilip Bhanushali, regarding the National HQ Building Fund contribution from our state.

So far, IMA KSB has contributed nearly ₹9-10 lakhs. Dr. Bhanushali will be visiting Gangavathi on 25th October as the Chief Guest for the Annual State Conference, MEDICON 91. On that occasion, he has requested us to present a cheque of ₹25 lakhs on behalf of our state.

To achieve this, I request all Presidents and Secretaries of respective branches to collect ₹1000/- per member (as per your branch strength) and remit the amount directly to the State Headquarters' National HQ Building Fund account on or before 30/09/2025. The account details is shared below.

This contribution is not just financial support—it is a reflection of our unity, strength, and pride, as IMA KSB. Let us rise to the occasion and ensure our state makes a mark with this collective effort.
